23 Defendant, Warren Jeffs, does not object to any dismissal provided it is 24 with prejudice. Defendant does object to some of the reasons provided by the 25 State as the State has directly omitted the fact that one of the complaining 26 witnesses has been implicated in the creation of false evidence that was 27 introduced at Mr. Jeffs' trial in Utah. In addition to involvement in the creation

1 of the false evidence, the complaining witness and others may have been 2 involved in an ongoing cover-up and conspiracy. Defendant believes that the 3 prosecution was ethically obligated to dismiss the cases with prejudice and 4 believes that the prosecutor fulfilled his ethical duties by so doing. An 5 additional reason for the dismissal was that there was no reasonable likelihood 6 of conviction in either of the cases especially in light of recent developments.
7 Defendant has and will oppose any attempts to extradite him to the State of 8 Texas due to the constitutional infirmities and the legal inadequacy that may 9 occur in the Texas criminal justice system. Further, due to the ongoing 10 religious intolerance and religious animosity directed toward the Fundamental 11 Church of Latter Day Saints by the State of Texas, the fairness of the Texas 12 criminal justice process cannot be assured. There are additional legal and 13 factual inadequacies in these cases against Mr. Jeffs which defendant believes 14 led to their dismissal with prejudice, but the defendant supports the County
15 Attorney's decision in fulfilling his ethical duties and obligations in dismissing 16 these prosecutions.
