A Petition to the President of the United States of America

Revelation of the Lord Given to President Warren S. Jeffs
Draper, Utah
Thursday, October 7, 2010

1. To the honorable President of the United States of America now as standing at the head of this nation:
2. I who dwells on high, even your Lord and Savior, who redeemed all mankind by the shedding of His own blood, and who is over all and has all power, send to you my word.
3. Cause that my servant who presides over my Church now be delivered by thy hand.
4. Let my servant go, that he may perform his mission to prepare my people for My Coming.
5. Cause that the prosecutors, now cease their attack upon my servant Warren Jeffs.
6. Cause that this nation now restore to my people the consecrated land taken from them.

7. Cause that there be remuneration given them for the loss of the homes that are occupied illegally by the enemies of my people who are in the Colorado City, Arizona and Hildale, Utah area.

8. Cause that the attack against my people in Texas be stopped.

9. I, the Lord, shall cause my judgments to be withheld as you thus perform this work.

10. Otherwise, let this nation know I am with my people, and shall sweep the wicked from off the face of the Land of America.

11. Thus shall I perform my work by my Almighty power.

12. This from your Lord, even Jesus Christ, who shall subdue all His enemies under His feet.

13. Even as I have spoken, so shall I fulfill. Even so. Amen.

Revelation of the Lord Jesus Christ to the Peoples of the Nation of the United States of America and to the Peoples of the Earth Through My Servant Warren Jeffs

Reagan County, Big Lake, Texas
Saturday, February 5, 2011

1. Thus saith the Lord unto the nation of the United States of America: I, the Lord, am soon to send the shaking of the earth in a place in thy land not known as a usual place of violent shaking, unto the loss of many lives.
2. Let it be known, I, the Lord, have sent my message to government officials to free my servant Warren Jeffs, to cause my people to receive back their lands and houses, and you heed me not.
3. Thus I shall cause a great destruction in the land of Illinois, to the loss of life and to your awakening, that when I, the Lord, speak, let my word be fulfilled, lest you become as a people only worthy to be swept off my land of Zion;

4. For verily I say unto you, this earth is mine, and I have caused my people to receive a preparation work for my glorious coming on earth to establish my Zion, and they are my people. Let them go! For you shall now feel the wrath of an Almighty God in the place of my naming in a soon to happen event.

5. Though you deny me, know that I, the Lord, have spoken, and I send to you my word at this time, to receive my word that I shall cause my servant on earth to deliver to thee a message of warning, that I, the Lord, will no longer uphold thee as a nation, corrupting your way before me, having in your midst legalized murder of unborn children, thus shedding innocent blood before the heavens, and allowing the sins of Sodom and immoral practices among you by legal consent; yet you persecute my people who abide by my will and my governing principles of purity, required of them by me.

6. No longer consider I shall preserve thy land as you continue to allow him, whom I have chosen to receive and give my word to the peoples of the earth, to remain in bondage; when he only is seeking to fulfill my will, saith the Lord, in preparing my people to establish on my holy land my Zion, a place of peace; which you know is among them, having illegally carried away innocent children, examining my people, knowing they are free from the corrupting influences of this wicked generation by your own examining.

7. Though you accuse them of corrupt practices and evil motives, they are my people, saith the Lord Jesus Christ, who sendeth this message to you: Let my people go! or you shall reap a whirlwind of judgments in near future sending, such as you have not seen; for I am God, and I speak from the heavens through him whom I have anointed.

8. Though he received testing, fearing for a time, yet I, the Lord, have raised him up and delivered him and am guiding him -- Now step forth and deliver my word to all peoples:

9. Repent ye! Repent ye! My day of judgments upon all the earth is at hand.

10. Send forth my word of warning to all peoples, beginning with this nation, and hereafter shall I cause a greater sounding of my warning voice, which, if you heed me not, shall be fulfilled in fulness; for I shall appear in the power of my might in the clouds of heaven, to make myself known to all peoples my right to rule; and nothing can hinder the progress of my Zion rising in fulness;

11. For though you stretch forth your hands to persecute mine elect on the earth, who have received exalted ways in pure, religious motive and practice; yet you believe traitors who are themselves corrupt, partaking of a spirit of outward prosecution, condemning that which is holy because thine own hearts are corrupt before me; accusing mine elect of wicked motives who only receive my laws of Celestial Plural Marriage, and my Economic Order of Heaven, a United Order of religious practice by my word, by the revelations of my will.

12. And this is my Church upon the earth, living laws that you know are of scriptural record among you; yet you condemn that which I, the Lord, have established for the salvation of the earth.

13. Verily I say unto you, let there be an immediate stop to the prosecution and governmental interference against my servant and against my people, lest you incur mine anger unto the fulfilling of what I have named, that I now send to you in a writing of your understanding.

14. And though false witnesses stand forth seeking to brand guilt upon innocence, I, the Lord, shall defend my people in a manner of deliverance to thine eternal regret and condemnation, as you stand before me in the day of judging, having lifted your hand against your God who created you.

15. Receive my word of warning, and know that I, the Lord, have spoken from the heavens at a needed time when you can respond to my word.

16. And as a testimony this is my word, I shall send forth a great storm in the land, crippling thy nation again, which I have been sending in increasing power since you allowed an unjust judge to confine my servant still, and other court actions in thy land against the holding of property where my people dwell; in that place in the Hildale, Utah and Colorado City, Arizona area, illegally, by your own laws, interfering with a religious trust by governmental intervention.

17. Now this country of the United States of America shall go down, as she does not defend innocence, religious organization of pure religious intent.

18. I, the Lord, have spoken it. Hasten to respond to my word, as I send my word again to you, lest mine anger be kindled unto the fulfilling of all my promises against a wicked generation in a manner you have not seen before.

19. This from your Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, who hath redeemed all mankind, who will respond to my message of salvation; which shall go forth again to all surviving nations, they who will respond to my word and preserve my people who shall go among them to deliver my message of salvation in a day soon at hand.

20. And nothing can stay mine hand, saith the Lord, for all nations shall know I have spoken it.

21. And as my word is fulfilled, though the wicked among you deny me still, I shall preserve mine elect and establish my Zion until all nations shall know I am doing my work on the earth as I have promised.

22. Receive ye my word to thy understanding, and I shall preserve thy land as you execute equity and justice, not allowing the persecution of an innocent people who are only seeking to do the will of their God -- a revelation of my giving in the law of Celestial Plural Marriage, and revelations of my giving in the Law of Consecration of Stewardships, called the Holy United Order among my people.

23. These laws are of me, saith the Lord, and are of ancient record, that record being in your hands, by my faithful Apostles and Patriarchs of old, by prophets and kings and rulers who lived laws of my revealing in their time, which must be lived in purity, with no corruption among them, or they cannot be my people, saith the Lord.

24. And though you condemn my law, my law shall triumph over all opposition, all opposing powers, though all the world combine; for these laws are of me.

25. My people know that they must needs abide these laws to be my people; thus, they have suffered persecution, lo, these many years, rather than surrender eternal, exalting laws from their God.

26. And this is why they continue the living of my revealed, eternal laws, seeking salvation of souls for themselves and all others who would come unto me through my authorized representative on earth, each in their time; yea verily, my Prophets, upholding my law as revealed through my servant Joseph Smith, Jun.; as he was instrument in mine hands to restore my Gospel of salvation and mine authority to administer my laws upon the earth; which authority continues in the person of my servant Warren Jeffs, whom I have preserved, though tried, and he continues to receive my word.

27. And verily I say unto you, my judgments are soon to be poured forth upon all nations that forget their God, who will not heed my word and purify their lives before me, in righteous principles known to all peoples, if you corrupt your ways before me, in licentious and immoral practices that lead to the shedding of innocent blood, in most nations where murder of unborn children is allowed by legal consent; and this stench can no longer continue, for I shall stretch forth mine hand and all peoples shall know I have spoken.

28. Repent ye! Cease these evil practices immediately!

29. Change your laws that allow this evil practice, and other evil immoral practices that lead to the murder of the unborn; or you shall rise in the resurrection unto a buffeting worthy only for murderers who consent to this practice, even a whole generation upon the earth led astray by wicked men of evil practice themselves among you.

30. Thus is my word boldly given to you and sent to you in a manner of thy receiving, with no confusion involved, for this is a pure giving from the heavens unto you through my Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints upon the earth, known among you -- separating themselves from that branch that broke away from my Priesthood on the earth, to be known as upholding the original revelations and principles I revealed to my servant Joseph Smith, known as the Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, of a legal Corporation Sole among you, which I, the Lord, have now set in order, revealing the name of my servant as President of this Corporation Sole; which legal entity should be allowed by the courts to receive my consecrated lands;

31. But an unjust court illegally resolved to change the articles thereof to allow the taking away of my lands and houses belonging to me, saith the Lord, out of the hands of those appointed officers who answered you nothing because they only answer to the Lord their God for their religious responsibility before me; and you knowing the government, court, or authority in your land has no right to interfere with a religious trust of full religious intent, which I, the Lord, caused to be established to preserve my people in an organized labor, to live a law of eternal nature earning them a salvation in the Kingdom of heaven.

32. And they abide my law in a pure walk before me, which can only be administered by inspired religious leadership, not of governmental appointing.

33. And thus you have interfered in my Church, and I name this to you, O ye governmental officials of this nation -- Repair this, for you have sinned a sin against the God of creation who made you, in interfering with my Church, taking away my lands and houses, consecrated by religious giving by a people baptized and confirmed as members of my Church upon the earth, and though knowest it; and you have been convinced by apostate and wicked people who thus persecute my people, though it be by outward show of legal authority.

34. And through your own corruptions among you, then you accuse my people of wicked intent -- and how can it be, when they give their all and are willing to suffer at thine hands, even imprisonment, rather than give up in their lives their religion, which I, the Lord, have commanded them that they must live to earn a place with me in the heavens?

35. I, the Lord, reveal this much to you -- that you have interfered, through your legal procedures, with the Lord your God and His work of bringing forth a righteous people who receive Him in His glory, whose only purpose in living these exalted laws is to glorify their God and bring salvation to a corrupt world; that I shall cleanse by my power as I descend in the clouds of heaven to my land of Zion; and also to my old Jerusalem, to gather mine Israel, which promises are in sacred writings among you.

36. I now step forth and cause my servant on earth to declare my word to you:

37. Let my people go! or suffer the judgments of a just God, and in eternity, the damnation of your souls, knowing that religious freedom should be guaranteed in every nation -- which you labored for; yea, for many, save for my people; having prejudiced your minds against them as though I, the Lord your God, was not guiding my Church.

38. Now receive my word and my promise of a judgment soon to come of thy knowing, and respond; for my almighty power shall be shown as a beginning of the cleansing of my land of Zion, known to you as North America, where my New Jerusalem shall be built, and extending to South America, saith the Lord God of heaven;

39. My land of Zion, appointed by me, before thy nation ever inhabited my land, to be the place of a glorious kingdom, revealed from heaven unto an obedient and pure people on earth, which revelations have been among you since I restored my Priesthood and my revealed word through the Prophet Joseph Smith; and this generation has rejected my word.

40. And I am a God of truth and shall fulfill my word, saith the Lord God of heaven, Jehovah Christ, the God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, and of mine Apostles, who came to earth and suffered on the cross, that all men may be raised unto life and receive an eternal reward for their deeds and desires in the flesh.

41. And all things are known unto me, as I reveal your hearts, even this wicked generation upon my land of Zion, for you are a murderous and adulterous generation, legalizing a slaughter of innocence among you.

42. For verily I say unto you, you are like unto Herod of old, who sought to destroy my life when but a youth, in the slaughter of children, in the city of my begetting through a pure virgin.

43. Thus you slaughter innocence like unto him, by legal consent, which must now be cleansed off the earth before my glorious appearing, saith the Lord God of heaven.

44. And this I reveal to you through him whom I have appointed to send my message unto all peoples.

45. Though you listen not, in the trembling of the earth, some shall begin to awake.

46. And as the storms roll forth of more violent nature in thy land, some shall begin to awaken and wonder what is taking place;

47. And now you know I have spoken it.

48. Receive ye my word; and if you heed me not, prepare for my word to be fulfilled, warning you through him whom I have appointed.

49. This is the word of the Lord thy God, who created all things, who preserves all nations in their place, until they prove themselves so corrupt before me, I cause the dissolution of the wicked; yea, they who are ripened in iniquity, as you, the people on my land of Zion, who persecute my Church upon the earth, have now become.

50. And though you deny my record, revealed through the Prophet Joseph Smith -- my holy record named as the Book of Mormon -- like the Jaredites and Nephites of old, ye shall be swept off my land, saith the Lord, as you continue in your corrupt ways as did they of old; who followed these same practices in their lives, until I, the Lord, did not allow it any longer.

51. This from Him who reigns on high and who shall render eternal justice upon all -- a reward of eternal life for the pure and the righteous among you, and the reward of a damnation unto suffering for the wicked; who knowingly sin away the day of grace, knowing mine own word hath been sent to all peoples as delivered by mine ancient Apostles, my Gospel spreading over the earth and being restored anew through the instrumentality of Joseph Smith; my servant; who was martyred among you; whose murder is yet an event to be avenged by me, saith the Lord, upon this wicked nation; and the driving of my people and murdering of my people since the days of the establishment of my Church upon the earth in thy land; whose innocent blood was shed, still cries from the ground for vengeance against this nation.

52. Thus shall I be justified, at thy receiving my warning, to send forth greater judgments, until justice is satisfied; for you reek in the shedding of innocent blood as a nation, allowing this great evil among you, destroying life of my sending, of perfect innocence, unable to defend themselves; for your immoral practices have led you to this murderous work which I have named before you, as worthy only to be swept off my land of Zion.

53. This is the word of the Lord. Heed my word, lest I send my judgment upon you.

54. And in a time the more wicked step forth to further hinder my work, my judgments shall be poured forth without let or hindrance, to leave the wicked neither root nor branch of an inheritance upon my land of Zion, as I, the Lord, have foretold, my word being revealed through my servants, the Prophets.

55. And like the days of Noah, only those I preserve shall remain upon my land of Zion.

56. Thus you shall know thy God hath spoken, both on earth, and as you plead for deliverance in the day you dwell in the world of departed spirits, suffering justice until you have paid the debt for your evil ways upon her, before I can raise you up to a degree of glory, according to the law you lived on earth.

57. And those who shed innocent blood commit an unpardonable sin.

58. Though they shall be raised from the dead, they shall yet suffer for their evils, resulting from immoral practices among you.

59. How can you continue this corruption, O ye people of the earth, fighting against the laws of life, your own life preserved only by my grace and power, saith the Lord your God who created you; though you deny that gift for others through interfering with the gift of life in their coming forth?

60. Such legalized murder corrupts all peoples in your land, consenting thereto by allowing it to continue among you.

61. Yet you persecute my people, who have none of these evils among them, but are careful to preserve life that I send forth, and raise up children in principles of an exalting nature; which is known among you now as you carried away my innocent children from among my people in a raid that was unjust, having broken none of your laws that are just, accusing them of being abusive to children simply because they seek to live my high and holy and pure law, required by me, the Lord your God, for eternal exaltation to be earned; which my people know as the pure religious motive in their lives, willing to suffer at the hands of injustice to abide an eternal law and earn salvation in the Kingdom of heaven.

62. Let my people go! for my Zion shall rise from among them, notwithstanding all the opposition against my Church upon the earth.

63. I, the Lord, have caused this understanding now to be given in plain language.

64. I, the Lord, have spoken it; thus shall I fulfill to the sorrow of the wicked, to the rejoicing of mine elect.

65. Though they suffer at the hands of the wicked, they shall be delivered unto eternal salvation who stay faithful to my cause of Zion.

66. Thus, I record this on this day of giving mine own word from the heavens unto this wicked nation, which shall be known yet as I send forth more of my word, until all peoples know that I am a God of power and know all things.

67. I am a just God and a merciful God also, to those who repent and remove these evils from among them.

68. Now put it on record, saith the Lord, there shall now be a shaking in the place I have named, in a manner that government officials shall know beforehand that it would be so, which shall awake a few, denied by most unto their eternal condemnation, knowing my word, and would not heed my word.

69. And when they find more of my word has been given, they shall be among those that curse God and die, not caring for their own lives, let alone the lives of others.

70. Thus are they a murderous and a wicked and immoral generation, adulterous in nature, having pleasure in unrighteousness unto the murder of innocence.

71. And though I cause this to be on record, they heed me not until the sign of judgments, of removing the wicked from my land of Zion, takes place.

72. Then they shall know, in the world of spirits, to a degree, some of their sin; for the evil powers there will promote lies, deceiving many, until they sin away every day of grace I have granted them.

73. And thus this record on earth is being made in a time I, the Lord, have reached for this generation to repent and earn a salvation, yet they would not; which causeth the heavens to mourn; yet they shall not mourn longer; for soon my justice shall be satisfied, and there shall be a cleansing; then mercy shall reach for those who repent and come unto me for salvation, saith the Lord Jesus Christ.

74. I shall cause a soon happening that shall humble many people to their awakening, that my word is coming forth with exactness, and I fulfill my word, to humble my Priesthood people; many of whom shall hasten to prepare, knowing I have spoken unto public knowing among this nation; for thus it shall be advertised and mocked and scorned until the time of fulfilling.

75. Then some few shall heed, while others shall mock more: "What else hath he said?" they will declare.

76. And when he steps forth to deliver more, and I thus fulfill, the mocker shall mourn, many taken in the holocaust of the several judgments I shall send; yet still in the spirit world, in their choosing darkness when my light was offered them, many will continue to deny me until every opportunity of salvation is rejected.

77. And when their memory is restored of once dwelling in a Celestial world, with their eternal God, who is their Father, that is the day of weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth of eternal disappointment; that they turned against their Father who only loveth them; yet they would not heed every warning given.

78. Thus is the fate of the wicked who deny me, saith the Lord, put on record on earth at a time my Gospel of salvation is among them; yet they persecute my servant and my people, and decry against them falsely; though all they desire is the salvation of souls through abiding eternal laws that exalt, even those who abide these laws in a pure way before me.

79. Let go of this wicked generation, saith the Lord.

80. Seek not after it, or you will partake of this sin of consenting to murder and adultery, to Sodom and other licentious practices.

81. Such are the people raised up in honor among the wicked, even many rulers partaking of these licentious and corrupt practices, some even of murder of the unborn, which lawmakers uphold the laws.

82. Though some publicly oppose, this wicked generation allows it, and all are tainted thereby who do not actively do battle against these unjust laws.

83. Thus I, the Lord, shall reward all according to their deeds and the desires of their heart.

84. Justice shall be satisfied, my work shall triumph, my Zion is rising as I cleanse my people, and deliver this my word to you.

85. Let there also be this sent to those government officials in the Canadian state, a nation also corrupted before me by their own choice of murderous and adulterous and immoral practices.

86. I shall cleanse my land Zion, and nothing can stay my hand.

87. Oh, this wicked generation and unbelieving and corrupt people who will not heed even common sense of truth, for how can you murder an unborn child and think you do right? Thus shows the corruption of their nature.

88. Thus saith the Lord Jesus Christ to this most wicked generation, guilty of child-murder in the destruction of the unborn, an immoral and corrupt and adulterous generation, like unto previous generations that have inhabited my land of Zion, who were swept off the land when fully ripe in iniquity -- I, the Lord, have spoken.

89. Therefore, LET MY PEOPLE GO! And no longer allow these evil practices destroy your souls; for I am a just God and shall reward every man and woman, and children of age, according to their deeds done in the flesh.

90. Thus, I give my word to this nation as a final warning; and if you do not respond to my word, saith the Lord, I shall send the judgment named to awaken you, that when I, the Lord, speak, so do I fulfill.

91. This from your Lord and Savior, the God over all the earth, even Jesus Christ, who hath all power to discern the mind and heart of each and every son and daughter sent to mine earth, for nothing is hidden from me.

92. Let there be an awakening of this wicked generation against the day that my whirlwind judgments shall be poured forth.

93. Let there be an acknowledgment of my word sent by those of governing powers of this nation, that you will thus respond to my word -- to him whom I have revealed to thee is my Mouthpiece, even your Lord Jesus Christ, calling my servant Warren Jeffs to that work upon the earth, that I may know you will now fulfill my word, lest this judgment come upon you, and mine other judgments, as I have promised through the mouths of all my holy Prophets, known to thee in sacred writ.

94. This is my word to this generation: Repent ye. I, the Lord, have spoken it, and so shall I fulfill.

95. I, the Lord God, am eternal and my judgments are just. I see and know all things.

96. Let this generation be warned, by this my message sent, that my day is at hand when wickedness must be swept off my land of Zion, and my New Jerusalem shall be built, and I shall come in my glory as I have promised, and none shall remain who are unclean before me.

97. Let there be an awakening in government officials of an eternal judgment that shall come upon them from the God who made them, if they allow the continuation of these wicked practices of the destruction of innocence; of which I shall hold you eternally accountable, desiring life thyself, yet denying it, through legal consent, to unborn children, as though thou art God.

98. Let there now be an instant repeal of those laws that allow this wickedness among you, lest my judgments be hastened, having innocent blood upon your skirts, as it were; now having come up before your God, notwithstanding your professions of justifying nature.

99. I, the Lord, shall reveal more to this generation through my servant Warren Jeffs.

100. Hearken to my word, ye rulers of nations, lest your lands be left desolate in my day of greater judgments upon the earth; for I shall be known among all nations, and my power and righteous government shall be known, for I shall reveal to all peoples my message of salvation on earth, who remain.

101. And all shall hear me; for I am God, thy Redeemer, doing the will of my Father, unto the salvation of souls of those who will receive me through my Priesthood authority upon the earth; which I have restored and preserved, which Gospel of salvation has been among you, O ye people of the earth.

102. Seek unto Him who created you, and receive His message of salvation that I may own and bless you, yea, with an eternal salvation unto those who receive my Gospel through my authorized Priesthood authority among you.

103. And those who receive my Gospel of salvation on earth shall earn an eternal reward with me and with my Father; for mine atoning blood shall reach those who purify their lives in abiding the laws of my Church and Kingdom revealed among men on earth. spoken through the mouths of all my holy Prophets.

104. O ye people of the earth, repent ye; repent ye! My day of judgment is at hand; and my word shall be fulfilled that I have
105. Attaint your wicked and corrupt ways. Come unto me, thy Lord and Savior. I, the Lord, have spoken it. Amen.

We, the undersigned, Lyle S. Jeffs and Vaughan Taylor, Officers in the Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, do witness before all peoples that this is the word of the Lord received and revealed through His servant on the earth, even Warren Jeffs, and declare to all peoples our testimony that this is verily the word of God to this generation.
